1. Company's Philosophy on Corporate Governance

Reliance Industries Holding Private Limited ('the Company/ RIHPL') is registered with Reserve Bank of India ('RBI') as a Core Investment Company ('CIC') in the category of NBFC (CIC) to be regulated under the provisions of Master Direction - Core Investment Companies (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2016.

The Company recognizes its role as a corporate citizen and endeavors to adopt the best practices and the highest standards of Corporate Governance through transparency in business ethics, accountability to its customers, government and others. The Company's activities are carried out in accordance with good corporate practices and the Company is constantly striving to better them and adopt the best practices.

2. Objective

The following are the objectives of the guidelines on Corporate Governance:

- a. Complex environment has mandated the need for good corporate governance.
- b. Greater transparency enabling stakeholders in having a better understanding.
- c. Adopt best practices.

3. RBI Guidelines on Corporate Governance

In order to enable NBFCs to adopt best practices and greater transparency in their operations, RBI has issued the Guidelines in accordance with the provisions of Master Direction - Non-Banking Financial Company - Systemically Important Non-Deposit taking Company and Deposit taking Company (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2016 on Corporate Governance. In pursuance of the aforesaid Guidelines, the Board of Directors of the Company has framed the following Internal Guidelines on Corporate Governance at its meeting held on August 21, 2020.

The Board of Directors of the Company at its meeting held on January 6, 2023 has reviewed and revised the Guidelines in accordance with the provisions of Master Direction – Non-Banking Financial Company – Systemically Important Non-Deposit taking Company and Deposit taking Company (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2016. On October 22, 2021, the RBI notified Scale Based Regulatory ("SBR") framework for NBFCs which became applicable to RIHPL in accordance with the stipulated roadmap with effect from October 1, 2022. The regulatory prescriptions contained in this revised framework are now made part of these guidelines to the extent they are applicable.

Any subsequent amendments or any statutory modifications or re-enactments in the above stated guidelines / norms / clarifications or in any other applicable acts / regulations shall prevail in the event of a conflict with this Internal Guidelines on Corporate Governance.

4. Board of Directors

The Board of Directors along with its Committees shall provide leadership and guidance to the Company's management and direct, supervise and control the performance of the Company.

The role of the Board is to determine the overall strategic direction and management of the Company, including monitoring its performance. The Board is responsible to the shareholders and its conduct is determined by various provisions of the laws and the Articles of Association of the Company. In performing its duties, the Board shall meet regularly and act in the best interests of the Company.

The Board's primary responsibility is on the direction, control and governance of the Company and in particular, to articulate and commit to a corporate philosophy and governance that will shape the level of risk adoption, standards of business conduct and ethical behaviour of the Company.

The Board shall delineate the role of various committees and lay down a calendar of reviews. The Board will lay out and oversee a whistle blower mechanism for directors and employees to report genuine concerns. The Board shall ensure good corporate governance practices in the subsidiaries of the Company.

5. Composition of Board

- 5.1. The Company shall have atleast two independent directors.
